

Villa Anasa

Set above Panormos, Villa Anasa takes its name from the Greek word for breath, and that is exactly what it offers. Four bedrooms open onto airy, light-filled spaces for up to eight guests, gathered around a private pool and jacuzzi. Sea and sunset views stretch to the horizon, while Panormos beach and Mykonos Town sit only minutes away.

Days here invite you to exhale. Slip into the pool as the sea shimmers below, sink into the jacuzzi at dusk, then linger over dinner outdoors as the sky turns to sunset. With a personal chef on request, a concierge on hand and every comfort quietly arranged, all that is asked of you is to slow down.

To stay at Villa Anasa is to remember how to rest. Wake to the light over Panormos, swim before the day warms, then let the hours drift between the pool and the shade. As the sun lowers, sink into the jacuzzi and watch the sky turn. When you want the island, the beach and the town are minutes away; when you don't, the view is enough. Everything else is handled. You are asked only to breathe.
